

WASHINGTON, NJ- Abilities of Northwest Jersey announced its “Diamonds in the Sky” Gala will be held on Saturday, April 6th at Hawk Pointe Golf Club at 4 Clubhouse Drive, Washington NJ. This year’s gala will feature a special cocktail hour, followed by dinner, dancing, and a live and silent auction.

Abilities of Northwest Jersey is a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the employability and quality of life for adults with disabilities by providing training and individualized services. Proceeds from the event will directly benefit over 400 individuals with disabilities and will profit the organization’s recent PossAbilities Campaign, which includes their goal to raise $1.75 million to expand services in the region.

The ‘Diamonds in the Sky’ Gala will honor the service recipients Abilities serves as the true “stars” of the organization. The theme also tributes the organization’s supportive community, who “light the path” for the individuals Abilities serves. The organization will present awards to multiple members of the community, such as the Individual Achievement Award to Elizabeth Moser, the Community Partner Award to The House of the Good Shepherd, the Volunteer Award to Patti Sue Rossi, and the Special Recognition Award to Abilities Choir. The Gala will also feature items from the organization’s art program for silent auction as well as other coveted items for a live appeal.

“Every day our Abilities team has the opportunity to support our STARS and assisting each individual in fulfilling their dreams. Our galaxy of stars is supported by our amazing community and we look forward to celebrating with our partners at this spectacular event.” says Abilities’ Chief Development Officer, Sue Zukoski.
