Belvidere – Local artists have donated dozens of their works for a silent auction to be held at Abilities ‘Til Death Do Us Part murder mystery dinner theater event on Saturday, March 25. The event, a fundraiser for the agency’s Star program, begins at 6 p.m., with cocktails followed at 7 p.m., by dinner and at 9 p.m., dancing at The Belvidere Manor, 689 Water St. in Belvidere.

Presented by The Murder Mystery Company, ‘Til Death Do Us Part is an immersive dinner theater experience. An art auction will feature works by local artists including Cathy Miller (photography), Michele D’Amico and Rosemarie Mazzei (glass), Tomas Gonzalez (drawing), Suzanne Dominguez (jewelry), and painters J. Edward Palmer, Peter Barnhart and the late Howard Kron, as well as pieces donated by Abilities service recipients. Additional artists wishing to contribute work to the auction are welcome.

Honorary chair for the event is Dr. William Austin, president of Warren County Community College (WCCC). Special recognition at the event will also be given to longtime Abilities advocates, the Keeney family. Abilities of Northwest Jersey, Inc. is a not-for-profit agency founded in 1974 and dedicated to improving the quality of life and employability of persons with different abilities through vocational training and individualized services. Proceeds from the evening will benefit Star, a collaboration between Abilities and WCCC offering educational and employment training opportunities with classes presented on campus at WCCC in Washington.

Tickets for the evening are $80 per person. Sponsorships are available. For tickets, to donate art or for more information about Abilities, call (908) 689-1118, and visit the website at www.abilitiesnw.com.
