WASHINGTON – Rossi Chevrolet Buick GMC of Washington has donated $34,000 in proceeds from their 7th annual Festival of Trees, to Abilities of Northwest Jersey and The Arc of Warren County. The Rossi family hosts this annual fundraising event each December in their dealership showroom. The agency recipients both provide supports for individuals with disabilities, and will each be presented with a check for $17,000.

“The Rossi family is proud to support Abilities and The Arc and all of the good work they do throughout our community,” said Patti Sue Rossi of Rossi Chevrolet Buick GMC. “It’s rewarding in so many ways to collaborate with organizations that give, and provide us an opportunity to give of ourselves as well.”

“Once again the Rossi’s have come through for our organizations in the most generous and heartfelt way, and we extend our deepest appreciation for their support in helping us carry on our mission,” said Abilities CEO Cynthia B. Wildermuth.
