My trip to Centenary Sabrina Kinney

I took a trip with my staff to Centenary College. During my trip, I got to go on a tour of the campus, see dorm rooms and learn about the campus. We went into one building that had a white board wall, I got to color on the wall with markers! We also played charades. I wanted to see the dance room, but it was locked. I am glad I got to go on the outing, and I hope I can go back again!

This month I decided to write a recipe for Chicken and Dumplings!

Ingredients needed:

- 1 carton (32 oz) Progresso chicken broth
- 3 cups of shredded cooked chicken
- 1 can of condensed cream of chicken soup
- 1 can refrigerated Pillsbury Grands Southern homestyle buttermilk biscuits
- 2 Medium carrots, chopped
- Celery, chopped

Directions

- Heat broth and chicken soup until boiling. Once it boils, reduce the heat, and cover it. Let it simmer for about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. After 5 minutes, turn the heat up again to medium-high and let boil.
- Roll the biscuits into 1/8 inch thickness and cut into 1/2 inch wide strips
- Drop the strips into the boiling mixture one at a time. Add carrots and celery. Reduce heat again and let simmer for 15-20 minutes. Stir occasionally so dumplings do not stick!

Enjoy

The Hackettstown Business Improvement District is bringing the 14th Annual St. Patrick's Parade to town, Sunday, March 12th. This Irish-American tradition attracts more than 14,000 visitors—making this parade one of the biggest events in Hackettstown. Streets fill with enthusiasm as families, residents and visitors line up along the curb, in store windows and porches to celebrate and witness the festive parade. The parade will kick off at 3:30 pm with Grand Marshal Mr. Robert "Bob" Moore leading numerous participants including Irish dance groups, Irish bands, community groups, bagpipes and drums, Centenary University and Hackettstown High School teams and clubs, Hackettstown and surrounding area fire departments and rescue squads, as well as hometown favorites Junior and Senior Colonial Musketeers and the Hackettstown Community Band. This parade is pet-friendly, with a special pet costume contest sponsored by Doggie Styleash. Dress your pets for the chance to win prizes for 1st, 2nd, 3rd places. Judging will be held at Czig Meister Brewing, located at 106 Valentine St. Pets will then be invited to walk the parade as St. Patrick and Irish Heritage costume contestants after judging.
